

Building resilience through trauma-responsive practice— from home to classroom to campus.

Pedagogy of Humanity, LLC

Brittany L. Stratton, Educational Traumatologist Advocacy Services

To equip families with the tools, confidence, and support needed to navigate education systems and classroom challenges through a trauma-responsive lens.

Limited Time Introductory Rate
$40/session

FREE 15-Minute Consultation

A complimentary 15-minute conversation to slow down, feel heard, and explore whether my services are a good fit.

Standard rate
$75/session

Meeting Support

Virtual or in-person accompaniment.

IEP Review

Comprehensive review of the plan

Family Coaching

Reframes, communication, and advocacy skills

Classroom Behavior Strategies

trauma-responsive tools to align home + school

Holistic Family Support

Strengthening relational safety within the family system

All family services are grounded in the Pedagogy of Humanity and the principles of safety, dignity, and connection. I bridge advocacy and trauma-responsive strategies to help families reduce stress, strengthen relationships, and build confidence in navigating schools and systems.

Schedule your free consult today